How to leave a bequest

A bequest (leaving a donation in your Will) to the NSW Women's Refuge Movement Working Party Inc. is a way to make a lasting contribution to future generations of women and children escaping domestic violence. Your future support is greatly appreciated.

Types of bequests

☆ General / Proportional bequest

You can leave a sum of money or percentage of the value of your estate as your bequest.

☆ Specific bequest

You can specify assets or particular articles of property, such as property, land, shares, cars, etc. or anything of value as your bequest.

☆ Residual bequests

You can leave the remainder of your estate as your bequest, i.e. a gift of whatever remains of the estate after all other payments and bequests have been fulfilled.

The following is some suggested wording:

I give and bequeath to the NSW Women's Refuge Movement Working Party Inc.
ABN 51 326 110 595 * free of all duties and charges to be used for its general purposes.

* Details of the gift, eg. % of your estate, sum of money, particular article of property

➤ The NSW Women's Refuge Movement Working Party Inc. recommends that you seek legal advice on the specific wording and ask your solicitor for information on different types of bequests.
